

Construction Medicals

Overall, Occupational Health medicals are essential for the construction industry in South Africa to identify health risks, prevent occupational illnesses and injuries, comply with regulations, promote a safety culture, enhance productivity, and empower workers to protect their health and well-being.

Medicals Inclusion:

- Certificate of fitness
- Annexure 3
- Patient Medical History
- Family Medical History
- Height
- Weight
- Physical Examination
- Blood Pressure
- Urine Test
- Psychological Test
- Eye Test
- Hearing Test
- Lung Function Test