

Pest Control Medicals

Occupational Health Medicals for pest control employees in South Africa are essential for protecting their health, preventing occupational illnesses, complying with regulations, and promoting workplace safety in the pest control industry. These medical assessments contribute to the well-being of employees and help ensure the safe and effective delivery of pest management services.

Medicals Inclusion:

- Certificate of fitness
- PCO Form
- Patient Medical History
- Family Medical History
- Height
- Weight
- Physical Examination
- Blood Pressure
- Urine Test
- Psychological Test
- Eye Test
- Hearing Test
- Lung Function Test
- Exposure to Hazardous Substances
- Respiratory Health
- Compliance with Regulations
- Promoting Workplace Safety